PART I

PREPARATION

THE best Preparation is a HOLY LIFE.

So live as to be always ready to meet the Lord.

He who lives a holy life is always ready to depart and to be with Jesus. Must he not be always ready to stay and to be with Jesus in His blessed Sacrament?

The life of faith is a life full of the presence of God. Faith is the eye of the soul, and that eye looks not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. It realises—makes real to us—the presence of God and of the world unseen. The thought of that world unseen is never far away, nor long away, in a life of faith. In a life of faith, then, it is not like going on a long journey, for which the soul is unprepared, when we seek the close presence of our Lord and our God in Holy Communion. It is only like going a little step nearer, for which the soul should be always ready.

It is a poor way of making a “continual” remembrance of the Sacrifice of the Death of Christ ” to live in daily forgetfulness of it, and to come to Holy Communion only two or three times in the year. I should not like to have to say every time I came,

Holy Communion

---

"O God, I confess I have been too long without coming to this holy Sacrament ; forgive me my neglect." A life which cannot turn to Jesus at any time simply and naturally is a dangerous one. It is not a life of faith.

So the best preparation is a HOLY LIFE.

One who is always ready will gladly come often.

But will not coming often make me feel less ? May I not make it too common, and so come with less reverence ? No, you will not find it so. It is found, as a rule, that those who come oftenest come most reverently, and love best to come. In the Primitive Church the Lord's Supper was administered at least every Lord's Day. It would have seemed as strange to the early Christians to have a festival, such as Sunday always is, without Holy Communion, as to have a feast with nothing to eat. And certainly our Lord meant it to be a constant food for the souls of His people.

But, if I ought to live so as to be always ready, will there be any need of special preparation ? Yes, you would wish to do all honour to your Lord, and to win all blessing for yourself. So you will prepare your soul. The preparation is like dressing your soul for a feast. You are going to feast with Jesus. You would not like to go to a feast at some great man's house without taking care to be clean and well-dressed. But you are going now to meet One greater than the greatest on earth.

How then shall you prepare ?

SELF-EXAMINATION

The only thing said in the Bible about preparation for Holy Communion is this :—

“LET A MAN EXAMINE HIMSELF.”

It is quite the way of the Bible to give great broad rules to guide us, but to leave us to fill up the way and plan of following these rules for ourselves. All the Bible tells us is that we must search into our own selves before we come. Plainly this is in order that we may know what we are, and what we have done, and how we have been living. This searching into our own selves is called SELF-EXAMINATION. The Bible does not tell us how to do it, so we must try to find that out for ourselves. We should naturally ask, Does our Church then help us? And at once we find it does. In the first of the two addresses to be used in giving notice of Holy Communion, we are told something about Self-examination. The Church there exhorts us to search and examine our own consciences, and that very earnestly and truthfully, and again to examine our life and conversation (which means the same as conduct) by the rule of God's Commandments. Now we could not do better than follow this advice. What we have to do is to set our own hearts and lives side by side with God's holy law, that we may see where we have broken it, and how far we are from what God requires.

THE COMMANDMENTS

I hope you have often thought of the reason why the Ten Commandments are read at the beginning of the Communion Service. It is plainly because by them we ought to examine ourselves before we come to the Lord's Holy Table. I am going therefore to take the Ten Commandments, and to set down a few questions about each of them to help you in this work of Self-examination. But before I do so there are several things I should like you to think about.

1. It will be the greatest possible help to you to practise daily Self-examination. Perhaps this sounds hard. But it is not really so. I do not want you to go through a long string of questions every day. What I want you to do is this :—Think over your life and character, and choose out two or three sins to which you find yourself most often tempted. Then each night when you first kneel down to say your prayers, examine yourself briefly as to these. Think of them in turn, and see whether you have given way to them, or whether you have watched against them, during the day, praying God to forgive you if you have given way to them, and thanking Him if you have been able to resist them. This would only take you two or three minutes, and would greatly help you to know yourself and to watch against your besetting sins. If you practise this carefully, and if you come very often to Holy Communion, it will not be necessary to go through the Ten Commandments every time. Perhaps it would be enough to do this once in the month ; and at the other times when you are preparing for Holy Communion you might simply examine yourself more carefully and searchingly as to the same sins which you think of every night.

2. There is always a double danger in a long list of questions. Partly, there is the danger of their being gone through in a formal unreal way, which can do no good at all. And partly, there is the danger of feeling self-satisfied, and as if one was not so great a sinner after all, when one finds many questions as to sins of which one is not guilty. This last is a great danger, against which you must guard carefully, remembering that these questions are set down for all to use, and that some of them will be most needful to some persons, and some for others. So I should advise you to put a little mark against those questions you feel you most need to ask yourself, taking care, if possible, to have at least one so marked under each Commandment, and in general to ask yourself only these. Still it will be well sometimes to go through all the questions carefully, for God very often shows us at such times that we have really been guilty of sins we never suspected, and we learn to know some of our "secret faults."

3. I am afraid I must keep you a little longer

Holy Communion

still before we come to our questions, for I think I ought to try to show you how you ought to understand those Commandments by which you are going to examine yourself. This is just what Jesus Christ Himself did in the Sermon on the Mount. He showed how the Jews of old took the Commandments in the letter only, while Christians must take them in the spirit. By the letter is meant only just exactly what the very words themselves say. By the spirit is meant all that God intended the words to mean. You can see what the difference is if you think of our Lord's first example. He took the Sixth Commandment, "Thou shalt do no murder." Now the Jews thought they never broke this Commandment unless they killed some one, but Jesus says even unrighteous anger and cruel unkind words break it.

I should like to give you three rules to help you to understand the Commandments in the spirit.

A. When anything is commanded or forbidden, all lesser things of the same kind are commanded or forbidden. [Anger is a lesser thing of the same kind as murder.]

B. When anything is commanded or forbidden, all like things of other kinds are commanded or forbidden. [Honouring the Queen is like a thing of another kind to honouring your father and mother.]

C. When anything is commanded the opposite is forbidden, and when anything is forbidden the opposite is commanded. [You are commanded to

And now, when shall the Self-examination take place ?

FRIDAY EVENING

First kneel down and say this short prayer :—

O MERCIFUL FATHER, I am about to search and examine my conscience by the rule of Thy Commandments. Teach me to know myself, and let no self-love, nor any slothfulness or careless unconcern, veil and cloak my sins from my sight. May Thy Holy Spirit enlighten me, that I may search into the most secret chambers of my soul, and discern the evil that is in me. And make me more and more to hate and mourn over my sin, that I may truly repent, and stedfastly purpose to lead a new life ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then ask yourself the questions which follow slowly and thoughtfully, answering each one in your conscience honestly and truthfully. And when your conscience tells you you have sinned, then say :—

O MERCIFUL GOD, forgive me this sin for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

EXAMINATION UPON THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

COMMANDMENT I

Have I honestly and heartily given myself to God, to serve Him with all my powers ?

Have I loved God with all my heart ?

Have I loved anything better than God, such as myself—or pleasure—or the world—or some other person ?

COMMANDMENT II

Have I worshipped God with true heart-worship ?

Have I always tried to think of God as a Spirit, and to feel His presence, both in public and in private prayer ?

Have my prayers never been a dead dry form ?

COMMANDMENT III

Have I always honoured God's holy Name, speaking it with reverence, whether in conversation or in prayer ?

Have I always honoured all that belongs to God, such as His word, His house, His ministers, His people ?

Have I ever made, or repeated, jokes about holy things, or upon words in the Bible ?

---

COMMANDMENT IV

Have I been thankful for God's Day, and used it to His glory ?

Have I been glad to go to God's house, and to join in the prayers and praises of the Church ?

Have I looked upon all days as lent by God, and remembered that I must give an account for my use of time ?

COMMANDMENT V

Have I paid due honour and respect to all set over me—in my home, in my country, in my Church ?

Have I striven for the grace of obedience and submission to others ?

Have I been self-willed and obstinate, or ungracious and ill-tempered in my submission ?

COMMANDMENT VI

Have I injured no one in any way, but striven to do to others as I should wish them to do to me ?

Have I borne no malice nor hatred in my heart, but thought kindly and charitably of all others ?

Have I watched my words, and never spoken anything which would hurt another's feelings ?

Holy Communion

COMMANDMENT VII

Have I been pure and chaste in thought, and word, and deed ?

Have I carefully guarded eye, and ear, and heart, against all that could defile ?

Have I been temperate and self-denying in all things ?

COMMANDMENT VIII

Have I been strictly honest in everything, never wronging any one in the least thing, and always, if possible, making restitution for any wrong I may have done ?

Have I been true and just in all my dealings, never taking an unfair advantage, never neglecting to pay what was due from me ?

Have I lived carefully as regards money, never spending more than I ought, but always giving to God a due proportion in works of charity ?

COMMANDMENT IX

Have I taken great care never to say anything carelessly about others so as to injure their character ?

Have I always spoken the very truth from the heart ?

If I have been tempted to speak what is untrue, have I confessed it and asked forgiveness ?

Preparation

---

COMMANDMENT X

Have I been content with what God has given me ?

Have I guarded my heart against all covetous thoughts, and all unkind feelings towards others who are better off than myself ?

Have I set my heart overmuch upon any earthly object of desire ?

The following may sometimes be used instead of the foregoing :—

EXAMINATION UPON THE BAPTISMAL VOW

I.—Have I striven to keep my Baptismal Vow by renouncing and fleeing from all kinds and degrees of sin ?

I Have I stedfastly resisted the temptations of the DEVIL ?

Have I especially hated and avoided such sins as make man most like the Evil one ?
These are :—

(a) Pride ; thinking much of myself, and of my own rights and position ; not bearing to be slighted or affronted ; not being willing to overlook and forgive offences.

(b) Lying ; all untruthfulness and want of straightforwardness ; all hollow, insincere words ; all hypocrisy, and pretending to be better than I am.

Holy Communion

(c) Tempting; the leading others to sin by my words, or by my actions, or by my example, or by my neglect.

2. Have I stedfastly resisted the temptations of the WORLD?

Have I especially avoided, as far as I could, the company and friendship of the godless and worldly?

Have I kept from places and amusements which I know to be dangerous to my soul?

Have I kept from the snare of personal vanity?

Have I rooted out of my heart all covetous desires, and all craving after, and love of, money?

3. Have I stedfastly resisted the temptations of the FLESH?

Have I especially been wholly pure and chaste and modest, in thought, in word, in look, in act? Have I hated and fled from everything which could defile my soul with the least stain of impurity?

Have I been self-indulgent in eating or drinking?

Have I given way to sloth, indolence, love of ease, waste of time?

Have I practised self-denial in lawful things for Christ's sake?

II.—Have I striven to keep my Baptismal Vow by earnestly seeking to hold the true Faith, as I have been taught?

Preparation

Have I searched the Scriptures, and constantly believed God's holy word ?

Have I been faithful to my Church, and to her holy teaching ?

Have I striven to live in a dutiful, teachable, humble spirit, not being proud of my own cleverness or learning ?

III.—Have I striven to keep my Baptismal Vow by obediently keeping God's holy Will and Commandments ?

Have I loved God with all my heart and mind and soul and strength ?

Have I never loved, or sought after, anything more than God ?

Have I loved my neighbour as myself ?

Have I put away all selfishness, and tried to do good, as far as I was able, to all ?

Also the following questions as to Prayer and Holy Communion may be useful :—

Have I prayed from my heart to God morning and evening ?

Have I tried to remember God, and to lift up my heart to Him in secret during the day ?

Have I made a faithful use of the public worship of the Church, joining heartily in the prayers and praises, and worshipping God in spirit and in truth ?

Have I faithfully obeyed my Saviour's dying command, and regularly and devoutly partaken of the holy Sacrament of His Body and Blood ?

Holy Communion

When you have finished your Self-examination, you should make a full and humble Confession to God, mentioning especially the sins you have discovered.

For this purpose you may use any of the following :—

CONFESSIONS

I

O LORD, the God of mercy and compassion, I confess and bewail before Thee all the sins of thought, word, and deed, of wilfulness or weakness, of neglect or ignorance, by which I have provoked Thee to anger. Especially do I now confess that I have sinned against Thee by [Here name the separate sins you have discovered in your Self-examination]. Spare me, O merciful Father, spare Thy sinful child, who cries to Thee for pardon. Turn not Thy face away from me, but forgive me my sins, and cleanse me from all unrighteousness; for the sake of Thy dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 51

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness : according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences.

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness : and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my faults : and my sin is ever before me.

Preparation

Against Thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight : that Thou mightest be justified in Thy saying, and clear when Thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness : and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, Thou requirest truth in the inward parts : and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : Thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : that the bones which Thou hast broken may rejoice.

Turn Thy face from my sins : and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy presence : and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of Thy help again : and stablish me with Thy free Spirit

Then shall I teach Thy ways unto the wicked : and sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou that art the God of my health : and my tongue shall sing of Thy righteousness.

Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall shew Thy praise.

LORD, as I add day to day, so sin to sin. Yet with all my heart would I turn to Thee, O God of penitents and Saviour of sinners. My soul out of the deep crieth unto Thee. I have sinned, O Lord, against Thee, heavily against Thee. Alas ! woe is me for my misery ! I repent, I repent. Spare me, O Lord. I repent ; oh, help Thou my impenitence ! Lord, have mercy upon me ; heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee. " Have mercy upon me, O Lord, after Thy great goodness ; according to the multitude of Thy mercies do away mine offences." Pardon the guilt. Heal the wound. Blot out the stains. Rescue me from the tyranny of my sins. " Who can tell how oft he offendeth ? Oh, cleanse Thou me from my secret faults. Keep Thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me." Lay not my sins to my charge. Deal not with me after my sins, neither reward me according to my wickedness. And for the glory of Thy all-holy Name turn from me all those ills and miseries which by my sins I have most righteously deserved. Hear, O merciful God, my unworthy prayers, through Jesus Christ. Amen. (From Bishop Andrewes.)

If you have now confessed your sins with real penitence and real desire to amend, and have either made, or firmly resolved to make, restitution for any wrong you may have done any one, you may humbly trust that your sins are pardoned for Christ's sake, for you must not doubt God's promises, and He has promised that, if we confess our sins, He will pardon them.

Then you may say the "PRAYER OF HUMBLE APPROACH" from the Communion Service :—

I DO not presume to come to Thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in my own righteousness, but in Thy manifold and great mercies. I am not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under Thy Table. But Thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy. Grant me, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the Flesh of Thy dear Son, Jesus Christ, and to drink His Blood, that my sinful body may be made clean by His Body, and my soul washed through His most precious Blood, and that I may evermore dwell in Him, and He in me. Amen.

Also the following.

O HEAVENLY FATHER, I thank Thee that Thou hast so loved the world as to send Thy dearly beloved Son to die for us. Make me worthily to celebrate this memorial of His all-holy Sacrifice, that by it I may draw nigh unto Thee, and may be accepted in the Beloved.

infirmities, and teach me how to pray, that I may worship the Father in spirit and in and unjustly condemned. For me wast Thou mocked, and struck, and spit upon. For me didst Thou wear the sharp crown of piercing thorns. For me was Thy sacred Flesh mangled with the scourge. For me didst Thou go forth bearing the Cross until Thou didst sink under the load. For me didst Thou, even on this day of the week, hang in mortal agony upon the Cross, the nails rending Thy holy Hands and Feet. For me didst Thou pray, "Father, forgive them"; for I too have crucified Thee by my sins. For me didst Thou endure the terrible hiding of Thy Father's Face, and the awful death-struggle, and the parting asunder of soul and body. O infinite Love, kindle in my cold heart the flame of love to Thee! Touch my dry stony heart with the rod of Thy power that the stream of love may flow forth! And "by Thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by Thy Cross and Passion; by Thy precious Death and Burial; Good Lord, deliver" me. Amen.

Or else this,

O MERCIFUL JESU, who didst bear Thy Cross for me, help me to take up my cross daily and follow Thee. Amen.

O Thou, who wast lifted up for me, draw me unto Thee, that I may love Thee better for Thy exceeding love to me. Lord, I love Thee, help Thou my want of love. Amen.

O heavenly Father, make me to bear in my

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world ; have mercy upon me.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world ; grant me Thy peace. Amen.

SATURDAY MORNING

It will suffice to add to your Morning Prayer one or both of the following Prayers :—

O LORD, our God, the Bread of heaven and the Life of the world, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am not worthy to share in the heavenly Food of Thy most holy Feast. But do Thou, of Thy Divine goodness, grant me so to eat Thy Flesh and to drink Thy Blood that I may obtain remission of sins and eternal life ; through Thine own perfect merits, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit art One God for ever and ever. Amen.

O LORD GOD, behold I am about to draw nigh to Thy Divine and heavenly Sacrament. Cast me not out, though I be defiled by a multitude of sins. I lift up my voice to Thee, not as being worthy to approach Thee, but looking only to Thy great goodness. O God, be merciful to me a sinner ! I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am not worthy to look upon Thy holy and spiritual Table where Thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ is, in a figure, set forth as a Sacrifice for me, a sinner stained with every defilement. O God, help me to draw near with faith, that I may receive all the benefits of that holy Sacrifice; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

After your Morning Prayer say these three verses from the 24th Psalm, and try to think of them sometimes during the day :—

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord : or who shall rise up in His holy place ?

Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord : and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

SATURDAY NIGHT

It is well to recall once again the remembrance of the sins you have already confessed, and to use to-night one of the Confessions given for Friday on pages 16 and 19, not as doubting God's forgiveness, but to deepen in yourself the sense of sin.

You may then add to your Evening Prayer one or both of the following Prayers :—

O LORD JESU CHRIST, who wast
"crucified, dead, and buried," for us, teach us continually to crucify the flesh with the affections and lusts thereof, that we may die unto sin, and that all our corrupt affections may be buried in Thy grave. And, as Thou didst rise the third day from the dead, so grant that we also may rise evermore from the death of sin unto newness of life in Thee ; that so we may to-morrow worthily draw nigh to Thy holy Sacrament, and rejoice in the presence of Thee our risen Lord, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit art One God for evermore. Amen.

O LORD, I desire and long for the Bread of God, which is the Flesh of Christ. I desire and long for the Wine of heaven, which is His precious Blood. Oh, give me a deeper longing for this heavenly Food, and satisfy my soul with Thy goodness ; through the same my Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

I will receive the cup of salvation : and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Behold, O Lord, how that I am Thy servant : I am Thy servant, and the son of Thine handmaid ; Thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

I will offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving : and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

HYMN II

JESU, Thou joy of loving hearts !
Thou Fount of life, Thou Light of men !
From the best bliss that earth imparts
We turn unfilled to Thee again.

Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood ;
Thou savest those that on Thee call ;
To them that seek Thee Thou art good
To them that find Thee, all in all !

We taste Thee, O Thou living Bread,
And long to feast upon Thee still ;
We drink of Thee, the Fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from Thee to fill.

Our restless spirits yearn for Thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast ;
Glad when Thy gracious smile we see,
Blest when our faith can hold Thee fast.

O Jesu, ever with us stay ;
Make all our moments calm and bright ;
Chase the dark night of sin away ;
Shed o'er the world Thy holy light. Amen.

SUNDAY MORNING

The following may be added to your Morning Prayer :—

O LORD, our God, the Bread of heaven and the Life of the world, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am not worthy to share in the heavenly Food of Thy most holy Feast. But do Thou, of Thy Divine goodness, grant me so to eat Thy Flesh and to drink Thy Blood that I may obtain remission of sins and eternal life ; through Thine own perfect merits, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit art One God for ever and ever. Amen.

O HEAVENLY FATHER, I am about to draw near this day to the most Holy Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Thy dear Son. Have mercy upon me ; have mercy upon me, for I am most unworthy. I deserve only to be cast out of Thy sight as unclean. But, O my God, look not upon my sin, but look upon the Face of Thine Anointed. Thy dear Son hath died that we may have access with boldness unto Thee. Therefore I come. Oh, may I so eat and drink that I may be partaker of the Body and Blood of Christ to the strengthening and refreshing of my soul, and may be one with Him through the power of the Holy Spirit. Hear me, and accept me, O most merciful Father, for the sake of the same my crucified Saviour. Amen.

Create in me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within me. Ps. 51. 10.

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks : so longeth my soul after Thee, O God.

My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God : When shall I come to appear before the presence of God ? Ps. 42. 1, 2.

O Lord, I desire and long for the Bread of and long for the Wine of heaven, which is His

for this heavenly Food, and satisfy my soul

Try as far as possible to keep your mind free from earthly thoughts and cares, and in a fit state for the holy service in which you are going to take part. Try to feel that you are going to meet your Saviour and your King. Offer up little mental prayers from time to time before you reach the Church, such as these :—

Thou art my succour : haste Thee to help me.

Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof.

Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

I will wash my hands in innocency, and so will I go unto Thine altar.

Jesu, my Lord, I thee adore ;

Oh, make me love Thee more and more.

Holy Communion

In order to come with a heart free from distractions, it is helpful, when possible, to attend an early Communion. This was the custom with Christians from very early times. We know that, quite at the beginning, there were some very sad scandals at the feasts at which the Lord's Supper was celebrated (see 1 Cor. 11. 17-22), and it is probable that, in consequence of this, it was found wise to order that the Sacrament should always be celebrated in the morning. Neither the Bible, nor the Church, lays down any rule about receiving the Holy Communion fasting, but whatever helps us to be reverent and devout in receiving it is good. We all like to say our private prayers the first thing, before all the little cares and distractions of the day come in and claim our thoughts and attention. So too we should be thankful that this most blessed and holy Service should be, when possible, the first great act of the opening day, and that the first food of the opening day should be that of this Sacred Feast. Yet no one's conscience should be troubled, if it be found needful to take some sustenance first. We cannot do better than quote the words of Samuel Wilberforce, Bishop of Winchester, in his last charge :—

“Come to early Communion as giving the first of the day, the freshness of the spirit, the unbrokenness of the heart, to that great Service. But if you cannot come in the early morning, have no scruple about taking ordinary food before you communicate.”

PART II

COMPANION

THIS little book is meant to be used in Church at the time of Holy Communion. It is called a "COMPANION," because it is to go with you, to help you to understand the Service and to use it to your profit.

You will not use the Service to your profit unless you have prepared yourself well for it. The former part of this little book is meant to help you in that, and I shall take it for granted that you have tried, by self-examination, and confession, and very earnest prayer, to fit yourself for the high blessing and privilege you are now to enjoy. I must take it for granted. Yet I am almost afraid to do so. Oh, so much depends on this preparation! But the time of preparation is past. What we have to do now is to try to join in the holy Service as profitably as we can. Yet there may be time for something even now. Let me try to advise you how to spend these precious minutes.

BEFORE THE SERVICE BEGINS

Come in good time to Church, kneel down, and say this short prayer :—

O GOD, I am in Thy presence. Shut out the world and all worldly things from me.

Holy Communion

Send Thy Holy Spirit to help my infirmities, and bless to me this holy Service; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then ask yourself these short questions :—

Have I prepared myself well for this Communion ?

Have I examined myself carefully and thoroughly ?

Have I confessed my sins humbly and earnestly ?

Am I really sorry for having sinned ?

Do I thankfully remember my Saviour's love, and look to Him for mercy and pardon ?

Am I resolved to strive hard to do better ?

Am I in charity with all men ?

Then say very solemnly to God :—

LORD, I repent : help Thou mine impenitence. Lord, I believe : help Thou mine unbelief. Lord, I love Thee : help Thou my want of love. Amen.

And now you must not be afraid. Surely you cannot be afraid of the Father who loves you more than the tenderest earthly father ever loved his child ; or of the Saviour who loved you and gave Himself for you ! No, you must not be afraid.

Listen ! Jesus speaks to you : Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest

Listen again ! It is the same voice of love :
Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise

You cannot be afraid now.

If you have time, you may use some of the following Psalms or Prayers or Hymns before the Service begins :—

Psalm 51

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after Thy great goodness, &c. (See page 16.)

Psalm 138

For Cleansing

CLEANSE Thou me, O Lord, from my secret faults, and mercifully pardon my presumptuous sins, that I may receive Thy holy gifts with a pure mind ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Acceptance

O LORD, our God, the Bread of Heaven and the Life of the world, I have sinned against heaven and before Thee, and am not worthy to share in this heavenly Food. But do Thou, of Thy Divine tenderness, grant me so to eat Thy Flesh and drink Thy Blood that I may obtain remission of sins and eternal life ; through Thine own perfect merits, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit art One God for ever and ever. Amen.

For Holiness and the Spirit of Worship

O LORD, "glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders," I bow before Thee, though most unholy, praying Thee, of Thy mercy, to receive me for the sake of Thy spotless Son, and to make me holy, even as He is holy. I am not fit to take Thy sacred Name into my mouth ; yet I beseech Thee that I may offer unto Thee even now my Sacrifice

Amen.

HYMN I

(N.B.—This hymn is suitable only for early morning.)

I AM not worthy, holy Lord,
That Thou should'st come to me ;
Speak but the word ; one gracious word
Can set the sinner free.

I am not worthy ; cold and bare
The lodging of my soul ;
How canst Thou deign to enter there ;
Lord, speak and make me whole.

I am not worthy ; yet, my God,
How can I say Thee nay—
Thee, who didst give Thy Flesh and Blood
My ransom-price to pay ?

O come ! in this sweet morning hour,
Feed me with Food Divine ;
And fill with all Thy love and power
This worthless heart of mine. Amen.

HYMN II

O GOD, unseen, yet ever near,
Thy presence may we feel ;
And thus inspired with holy fear
Before Thine altar kneel.

Here may Thy faithful people know
The blessings of Thy love,
The streams that through the desert flow,
The manna from above.

We come, obedient to Thy word,
To feast on heavenly Food ;
Our meat the Body of the Lord,
Our drink His precious Blood.

Thus may we all Thy word obey,
For we, O God, are Thine ;
And go rejoicing on our way,
Renewed with strength Divine. Amen.

EDWARD OSLER.

HYMN III

JUST as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy Blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To Thee, whose Blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Companion

Just as I am, though toss'd about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears, within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind :
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve :
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Just as I am (Thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down) ;
Now, to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come !

Just as I am, of that free love
The breadth, length, depth, and height to prove,
Here for a season, then above ;
O Lamb of God, I come ! Amen.

nd out in your your heart does hem, " God is greater than your heart, and knoweth all things." So you have many more sins to be forgiven than those you can remember, and have great need to cry for mercy after each Commandment.

You will take notice that the Commandments are read where they are to help to prepare you for the Holy Communion. A custom has grown up in modern times of breaking the Communion Service in two, and using only the first part to the end of the Sermon ; and so it is often forgotten that this first part has anything to do with the holy Sacrament. This is a great mistake. The Commandments are read in this place that we may not forget to examine ourselves " by the rule of God's Commandments," and to see how many and great our sins are, before we draw near to the altar of our God.

You should, of course, have examined yourself already at home, but that you may not forget your sins, it is well to hear God's Law read aloud to you, and to let your conscience answer to each Commandment how you have kept it, or how you have broken it.

You will find set down, just in a word or two, opposite each Commandment the grace you must aim at, if you would fulfil the Commandment perfectly. This will remind you how far short you come in all.

In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day : wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it. Due observance of God's Day, and faithful use of time.

THE PRAYER FOR THE QUEEN

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY GOD, In thus praying for whose kingdom the Queen we are reminded of the words of is everlasting, and power infinite; Have St. Paul, who writes: mercy upon the "I exhort, therefore, whole Church; and that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving Thy chosen Servant of thanks, be made for ELIZABETH, our all men; for kings, and Queen and Governor, for all that are in authority; that we may lead that she (knowing a quiet and peaceable whose minister she is) life in all godliness and honesty."—1 Tim. 2. 1, 2. may above all things seek Thy honour and glory: and that we, and all her subjects (duly considering whose authority she hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey her, in Thee, and for Thee, according to Thy blessed Word and ordinance; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Or,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we are taught by Thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in Thy rule and governance, and that Thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to Thy godly wisdom: We humbly beseech Thee so to dispose and govern the heart of ELIZABETH Thy Servant, our Queen and Governor, that, in all her thoughts, words, and works, she may ever

THE COLLECT, EPISTLE, and GOSPEL

Thus the reading of God's holy Word is a part of our Communion Service, and we should hardly count any service complete without this. We will listen very attentively to the message God has for us in these precious portions of His Book.

THE CREED

I BELIEVE in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible :

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made : Who for us men, and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, and was crucified

The Church here sums up for us the teaching of God's holy Word upon the great truths of salvation. God keep us ever steadfast in this faith, and make us thankful for the truths so graciously made known to us ! Note especially how the Eternal Godhead of Jesus Christ stands out in this Creed, and praise Him who, being God, yet "was made flesh, and dwelt among us."

also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCES

LET your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. 5.

Lay not up for yourselves treasure upon the earth; where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven; where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal. St. Matt. 6.

"Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." In these words St. Paul gives you two good rules for your almsgiving. 1. It should be regular; and 2. It should be in proportion to your means. It is a great thing to settle what portion of your income you can give in charity, and to dedicate that solemnly to God. Many give away a tenth of their in-

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. 7.

Zacchæus stood

the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have done any wrong to any man, I restore four-

come; and rich people can easily do that, or more. But the same rule cannot be laid down for all, and a smaller proportion might be all a poor man could give.
Let your gift be at least something you would miss. Do not give to the Lord of that which costs you nothing. Of course you can give the amount you have settled to give in the way in which you think it will do most good, and there is no need to give it all through the Offertory.
Yet the Offertory is a simple, regular, and secret way of giving,
and in it you can obey
your Lord's command not to let your left hand know what your right hand does. You should stand while these sentences are being read, at least till you have made your own offering. When you have done so, say in your heart:—

Holy Communion

Do ye not know, that they who minister about holy things live of the sacrifice; and they who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord also ordained, that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. 1 Cor. 9.

He that soweth little shall reap little; and he that soweth plenteously shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudging, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. 9.

Let him that is taught in the Word minister unto him that teacheth, in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he reap. Gal. 6.

While we have time let us do good unto all men; and specially unto them that are of the household of faith. Gal. 6.

Godliness is great riches, if a man be content with that he hath: for we brought nothing into the world, neither may we carry anything out. 1 Tim. 6.

Charge them who are rich in this world, that they be ready to give, and glad to distribute; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may attain eternal life. 1 Tim. 6.

God is not unrighteous, that He will forget your works, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have showed for His name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister. Heb. 6.

To do good, and to distribute, forget not;

O LORD, all things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee: accept my poor offering through Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE OFFERING OF THE ALMS, AND OF THE BREAD AND WINE

You must not pass on without noticing two things which take place here.

First, the Priest humbly presents the Alms before God, placing them upon the Holy Table. So you should feel that what you have given you have given to God Himself, and this will make the Offering a much more solemn act, and a much more serious duty.

Secondly, the Priest now places upon the Holy Table so much Bread and Wine as he thinks sufficient. This in old times was always made a very solemn act. The Bread and the Wine, God's good gifts to us, are offered to Him to be blest by

Him, and given back to us as the signs and sacrament of better gifts still. When the Bread and the Wine are placed on the Holy Table, you may say:—

O GOD, all things are Thine, and from Thine hand have we received these fruits of the earth which we now offer to Thee. Accept them, O LORD, and bless them to us in this Holy Sacrament, that through them we may by faith receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Amen.

THE PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church militant here in earth.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who by Thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men:

We humbly beseech Thee most mercifully to accept our alms and oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto Thy Divine Majesty ;

Beseeching Thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and peace of the Church.

Offering of the Alms, and of the Bread and Wine.

For the truth, unity, and peace of the Church.

We begin this prayer by humbly beseeching God to accept our offerings, whether of money or of bread and wine, and to receive our prayers. Does it not sometimes put us to shame to ask God to accept the scanty offering we have perhaps grudgingly given? If you have given what you honestly think right, you can then without fear ask God to accept it.

The rest of this prayer is full of intercession for the Church and all its members. It has always

THE EXHORTATION

DEARLY beloved the Lord, ye that mind to come to the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, must consider how St. Paul exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we

When this Exhortation is read attend to it very carefully, for it is full of instruction. You will notice that the first part is taken chiefly from St. Paul's warnings to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 11. 27-31), and some of his words sound so terrible that we must take care that we understand them aright. It must be a very dreadful thing to be "guilty of

receive that Holy Sacrament; (for then we spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink His blood; then
we dwell in Christ,
and Christ in us: we are one with Christ,
and Christ with us;) so is the danger great,
if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Saviour;
we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the Lord's Body; we kindle
God's wrath against us; we provoke Him
to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death.
Judge therefore yourselves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord; repent you truly for your sins
past; have a lively and steadfast faith in Christ our Saviour;
amend your lives, and
be in perfect charity with all men; so shall ye be meet partakers
of those holy mysteries. And above all the Body and Blood of guilty of profaning and making light of these holy Gifts. This was what the Corinthians did when they made the Lord's Supper a time of feasting and excess, and of wicked pride and party spirit. Also it must be a very dreadful thing to "eat and drink

our own damnation," but the word had not always in old time the terrible sense it now has,
and in this place St.
Paul certainly meant by it, not everlasting destruction, but simply guilt or condemnation.
So that the mere word
ought not to frighten us away from the Holy Table, though it ought to make us very anxious not to eat and drink un-worthily. But again,
we must not make a mistake about this word
"unworthily," for there is a most true sense in which all of us eat and things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and man; who did humble Himself, even to the death upon the cross, for us, miserable sinners, who lay in darkness, and the shadow of death; that He might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should always remember the exceeding great love of our Master, and only Saviour, Jesus Christ, thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by His precious blood-shedding He hath obtained to us; He hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of His love, and for a continual remembrance of His death, to our great and endless comfort. To drink unworthily, as we ourselves say in the "Prayer of Humble Approach" farther on. It is not sinners who are in danger of coming unworthily, but impenitent sinners. The sinner who is fleeing from his sins will not be cast out as unworthy. The rest of this Exhortation you will more easily understand. While you listen to it, you can often turn the words into little secret prayers, such as these:—

O GOD, save me from the guilt of eating and drinking unworthily.

O GOD, make me to consider the Lord's Body, and to remember what holy things I am seeking.

O LORD, I judge and condemn myself for my sins: do Thou condemn me not.

LORD, I repent: help Thou mine impentence.

your comfort ; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

You are invited to lay your sins humbly before God, resolving to flee from them more earnestly, you need not vex yourself about not feeling very deeply. And you can make the words that seem unreal and too strong into another sort of confession (a confession within a confession), by saying in your heart, "Oh, how little do I feel the burden of my sins! Lord, make them more grievous to me, and teach me how heavy this burden is to bear!" Then leave all to God. He will accept your repentance, though it is so poor, for His dear Son's sake.

THE ABSOLUTION

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of His great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto Him: Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

You have confessed your sins to God, and He forgives you the wickedness of your sin. You must not doubt this, for that would be to doubt God's Word. But you will thankfully listen while God's messenger speaks his good tidings of pardon and deliverance. The Absolution is meant for the comfort and assurance of all who truly repent and believe. Say in your heart:—

O LORD, I thank Thee. My sin is great, but Thy mercy is greater. I believe Thou hast put away my sin. Glory to Thy Name, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE COMFORTABLE WORDS

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all that truly turn to Him.

for you on the Cross? Then lister, and you shall doubt no more.

COME unto Me, all that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. 11. 28.

Then it is you He bids to come. And we will venture to add one more saying of His, most full of comfort to the trembling soul: "Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out."

So God loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John 3. 16.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. 1. 15.

saying "worthy of all men to be received."

More comfort still. Do you yet doubt God's mercy, and the freedom of the pardon bought

Try to think of Jesus Himself speaking these words to you with His own gentle loving voice. You have your burden.

Another of the Lord's own gracious sayings. Surely it should fill our hearts with thankfulness and praise.

St. Paul ends this saying with the words, "of whom I am chief." The chief of sinners! And what then am I? Yet it was for such that Christ Jesus came into the world. Surely this is a

It is to a heavenly feast you are invited, and your heart must rise to heaven.

The whole Service is a Sacrifice of thanksgiving. It is called the Eucharist, which means the Thanksgiving. It ought surely to be a glad and joyful Service.

The Priest turns to the Lord's Table to show that he is no longer speaking to the people, but to God.

Try to join with all your heart in this act of praise.

PROPER PREFACES

These are used only at the Seasons named. In general we pass on at once to the rest of the Thanksgiving, beginning with "Therefore with Angels." You will not, however, fail to notice that the Seasons here named are Seasons full of thankful joy and praise to all Christian people, and therefore Seasons at which all Christian people should be glad to offer their "sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving" in this holy Service. Try, if possible, always to communicate at these Seasons. Your Easter Communion, according to the rule of the Church, must, above all, never be omitted. But, if you have a thankful remembrance of God's great mercies to you, you will not like to miss any of these holy and happy Seasons in which we bear in mind the great things God has done for us.

If you have time, while the Priest is setting in order the Bread and the Wine, and before he begins the next Prayer, you may say this prayer following:

ourselves, and our sins. It must always be so. We cannot yet praise God as the Angels do. While we are here the remembrance of our sins and unworthiness must ever mingle, like a dark shadow, with our brightest praises. And we are now drawing very close to the most solemn and sacred part of our Service. So the thought of our unfitness to draw so near to God falls upon us, and we bow down in humble confession that "we are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs" under His Table. But we want to

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there (by His one oblation of Himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in His holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that His precious

This is the most solemn part of the whole Service. Listen to it with great reverence. The Priest is speaking for you to God, and is consecrating, or making sacred and holy, the Bread and the Wine you are going to receive. praying God that we may so eat and drink as to be partakers of His most blessed Body and Blood. In the second part the Priest imitates
what our blessed Lord
did at the Last Supper, taking the Bread into his hands, breaking it, and blessing it; and taking the Cup into his hands, and blessing it. This is the way the Bread and Wine have always been consecrated. You must notice that this Prayer is spoken all through to God, so that when the Priest is consecrating the Bread and Wine he is speaking to God, and not to the Congregation.
This shows that we are making what is called a memorial, or a remembrance, of Christ's Sacrifice before God, as well as before man. In other words, we are pleading
before God the one all-perfect Sacrifice, to which we trust for salva-

When this is over you must think of the Bread and Wine as very holy things, for we do not receive them as common bread and wine, but as becoming to us, spiritually and by faith, the Body and Blood of Christ.</sup> Amen.

You will now have some little space of time for private prayer and meditation, either before you go up to the Holy Table, or after you return to your place. It is a good rule to make, never to sit (unless you are obliged by weakness) during the whole of this Service. So spend this time on your knees. It should be a very blessed time to you, and an opportunity of prayer for which you should be very thankful. You ought to be able to pray with special fervour and earnestness at such a time, and surely you may believe God will graciously accept your prayers when you are offering them through the merits of that all-holy Sacrifice of His dear Son, which you are now commemorating.

Above all take care that you do not look about you, or watch others going to, or returning from, the Holy Table.

You can use any of the following words which you feel to help you, or for which there is time; but you will do well to pray also in your own words for such things as you feel you most need, and for such persons as you wish to remember before God.

BEFORE COMMUNICATING

O LAMB of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us Thy peace.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, so longeth my soul after Thee, O God. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God. Ps. 42. 1, 2.

Whom have I in heaven but Thee? And there is none upon earth that I desire in comparison of Thee. Ps. 73. 24.

I will go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness. Ps. 43. 4.

O Jesu, Thou hast said, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me." Lord, I am listening for Thy voice: I would open the door of my heart to Thee: Oh! come to Thine unworthy servant, that I may indeed sup with Thee.

It is written, "Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb." O my Saviour, Thou hast called me. Praised be Thy holy Name! Lo, I come to this earthly foretaste. Oh, bring me to the heavenly banquet, for Thy mercy's sake. Amen.

Praise

Oh, taste and see how gracious the Lord is. Alleluia. Praise the Lord in the heavens; praise Him in the highest. Alleluia. Praise Him, all ye Angels of His; praise Him, all His host. Alleluia. Thee only, O Jesu, do we praise, with the Father and the most Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Longing for Heavenly Food

O LORD, I desire and long for the Bread of God, which is the Flesh of Christ. I desire and long for the Wine of Heaven, which is His precious Blood. Oh, give me a deeper longing for this heavenly Food, and satisfy my soul with Thy goodness; through the same, my Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

To the Lord Jesus Christ

O LORD JESU, God and Man, who didst feed five thousand with five loaves; feed Thy servants, we pray Thee, with the heavenly food of Thy Body, which Thou didst give for the life of men. Amen.

O LORD JESU, who art the true Bread of life, evermore give us this Bread. Amen.

O LORD JESU, who didst say, "Whoso eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day," grant us so to eat and drink that we may live for evermore. Amen.

O LORD JESU, who didst take bread and say, "This is My Body," may we so eat (as discerning Thy Body) that we fall not into condemnation. Amen.

O LORD JESU, who didst take the Cup and say, "This is My Blood," may we so drink that Thy precious Blood may cleanse us from all sin. Amen.

O LORD JESU, who didst say, "Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest," make Thy servants so to come unto Thee that they may find rest unto their souls. Amen.

O GOOD Shepherd, Lamb of God, Bread of Life, have mercy upon us, and accept us, now and evermore. Amen.

Pleading Christ's merits

O GOD most holy, I come before Thee, unclean, unholy, chief of sinners. Look not on my sin, O God, but look upon the Sacrifice that was offered to take away sin. Behold, before Thee I, most unworthy, would make memorial of that most worthy Sacrifice. Behold, before Thee I would plead the Offering once made for the sin of the whole world. I have nothing else to plead. I have no offering of my own to bring. The Sacrifice of Thine own dear Son—that is my plea. Oh, cast me not out, but accept a poor sinner, for the sake of the sinless One. Amen.

For supply of Spiritual needs

LORD, I am not worthy of the least of Thy mercies, yet, trusting to Thy loving-kindness, I draw nigh. I am guilty; and I come to Him who hath power to forgive sins for pardon. I am sick; and I come to the true Physician for the healing of my soul. I am blind; and I come to the Light of the world for light in my darkness. I am poor; and I come to the Lord of all things for the true riches. I am naked; and I come to the King of glory for the white robe of righteousness. O merciful Jesu, hear me, and grant me all that my soul needeth, both now and evermore. Amen

For Faith

O GOD, who alone canst give sight to the blind, open the eye of my soul to look at the things which are not seen. Lift it from the earthly elements of Bread and Wine that I may gaze upon the Lamb sacrificed for me, and see my Saviour giving for me His most precious Body and Blood upon the altar of the Cross; that so I may adore His love, and offer unto

Holy Communion

Him the incense of holy worship ; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Healing Virtue

LORD JESU, who didst heal the woman who touched the hem of Thy garment in the crowd, I would stretch out the hand of faith and touch Thee even now. Oh, let the healing virtue come forth and make me whole ; for Thine own mercy's sake. Amen.

For the sense of Christ's Presence

O LORD JESU, who wast known to the two disciples at Emmaus in the Breaking of bread, have mercy upon me ; open mine eyes that I may see ; and make Thyself known to Thine unworthy servant in this Breaking of bread. Hear me, O Jesu, who livest and reignest, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, One God evermore. Amen.

For the Blessings of the Sacrament

O BLESSED JESU, our Lord and our God, we are about to obey Thy dying Command, and to do this in remembrance of Thee. We plead Thy all-precious Sacrifice before the heavenly Throne. We believe that Thou art evermore interceding for us above, presenting before the eternal Father Thy sacred Body, with its blessed wounds. So would we plead for acceptance through the same all-prevailing Sacrifice. O Lamb of God, slain for us, we crave and long for a share in Thy glorious merits. O Christ, our Passover, sacrificed for us, with desire do we desire to eat this Passover with Thee. We desire to be fed, nourished, strengthened, with the precious sustenance of Thy Body broken and Blood shed for us. Receive us, unworthy though we are, and

HYMN IV

(PART I)

BE still, my soul ! for God is near ;
The great High Priest is with thee now ;
The Lord of Life Himself is here,
Before whose Face the Angels bow.
To make thy heart His lowly throne
Thy Saviour God in love draws nigh ;
He gives Himself unto His own,
For whom He once came down to die.
He pleads before the Mercy-seat—
He pleads with God ; He pleads for thee ;
He gives thee Bread from Heaven to eat—
His Flesh and Blood in mystery.
I come, O Lord !—for Thou dost call—
To blend my pleading prayer with Thine ,
To Thee I give myself—my all,
And feed on Thee and make Thee mine.
Amen.

(PART II)

O BODY broken for my sake,
And dying on the awful tree,
That I from death new life should take
And live engrafted into Thee ;
O Living Bread ! who once didst die
And lay Thee down in rocky tomb,
Within my heart for ever lie,
And shed Thy brightness o'er its gloom.
O Precious Blood ! so freely shed,
Sweet pledge of pardon from above ;

Holy Communion

Speak to my heart, so cold and dead,
And wake it into life and love.

Speak better things than Abel's blood,—
My ransom paid, my sins forgiven,
My soul restored to peace with God,
My place prepared for me in Heaven.

○ Sacred Food ! O Cleansing Stream !
Fill all my soul with love Divine ;
○ Thou, who didst my life redeem,
Come to my heart and make me Thine !
Amen.

HYMN V

AND now, O Father, mindful of the love
That bought us, once for all, on Calvary's Tree,

And having with us Him that pleads above,
We here present, we here spread forth to Thee,
That only Offering perfect in Thine eyes,
The one true, pure, immortal Sacrifice.

Look, Father, look on His anointed Face,
And only look on us as found in Him ;
Look not on our misusings of Thy grace,
Our prayers so languid, and our faith so dim ;
For lo ! between our sins and their reward
We set the Passion of Thy Son our Lord.

And then for those, our dearest and our best,
By this prevailing Presence we appeal ;
Oh, fold them closer to Thy mercy's breast,
Oh, do Thine utmost for their souls' true
weal ;
From tainting mischief keep them white and clear,
And crown Thy gifts with strength to persevere.

And so we come ; oh, draw us to Thy feet,
Most patient Saviour, who canst love us still ;

And by this Food, so awful and so sweet,
Deliver us from every touch of ill :
In Thine own service make us glad and free,
And grant us never more to part with Thee.
Amen.

WILLIAM BRIGHT.

HYMN VI

HERE, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face ;
Here faith can touch and handle things
unseen ;

Here would I grasp with firmer hand Thy grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.

Here would I feed upon the Bread of God ;
Here drink with Thee the royal Wine of heaven ;

Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

I have no help but Thine ; nor do I need Another arm save Thine to lean upon ;
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed ;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness ;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing
Blood :

Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace—
Thy Blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord, my God ! Amen.

HYMN VII

WITH weary feet and sadden d heart
From toil and care we flee,
And come, O dearest Lord, apart
To rest awhile with Thee.

The courts of Heav'n were lost to view,
The world had come between ;
But here the veil is rent in two ;
We see the things unseen.

Our sins, in Thy pure light descried,
Stand out in dread array ;
But here in Love's absolving tide
Their guilt is wash'd away.

With strife of tongues distraught and worn
Our troublous way we trod ;
But cast ourselves this holy morn
Into the peace of God.

And oh ! what depth of joy, as thus
We bend the trembling knee,
To know that Thou art one with us,
And we are one with Thee ! Amen.

This the only plea on which our hope relies,

3. The Memorial before Man

To our brother sinners we repeat the story,
( 'Tis the Gospel story pictured to our eyes, )
Ever in this Service, till He comes in glory,
Showing forth the Saviour's priceless Sacrifice.

4. Christ pleading His Passion for us above

For His own dear members He is interceding,
Far above in light unseen by mortal eyes ;
Yet is present now, His faithful children feeding,
Giving His own Self, their one true Sacrifice.

Then, O gracious Father, bent in reverence lowly,

Food that none may dare to take with hands unholy
Feasting on the once accepted Sacrifice.

amazing!
Glory be to Thee, our one true Sacrifice!

THE RECEPTION

You are now to draw near and receive the Bread of life, and the Wine of heaven. Jesus waits for you. Think of Him as present in Spirit to welcome you, to feed you, to bless you. Do not take any book in your hand, but say in your heart, as you leave your place :—

O MY Jesus, I come to Thee. Thou art present in power to heal. Let me touch but the hem of Thy garment, and I shall be whole.

Then go up quietly. Do not be in a hurry to kneel at the altar-rails before there is room, nor push in so as to kneel too closely together, as that disturbs others, as well as yourself. If you have to wait a little for your turn, either kneel or stand in secret prayer. You will find time, either while waiting, or after you have knelt down at the rail, for some such short prayers as these, which you should know beforehand :—

LORD, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word only, and Thy servant shall be healed.

LORD, be merciful unto me : heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.

I will wash my hands in innocency, and so will I go unto Thine altar.

Holy Communion

---

When you are waiting for the Bread, say in your heart :—

THOU hast said, "The Bread that I will give is My Flesh, which I will give for the life of the world." Behold the servant of the Lord : be it unto me according to Thy word.

The Minister, when he gives you the Bread, will say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on Him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

After the words "everlasting life" you can say "Amen" softly. And at the end you can say in your heart :—

LORD, I believe : help Thou mine unbelief.

LORD, I thank Thee : help Thou mine unthankfulness.

You may then say secretly :—

My Beloved is mine, and I am His. Cant. 2. 16.

When you are waiting for the Cup, say in your heart :—

THOU hast said, "My Blood is drink indeed. Whoso eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood hath eternal life." Behold the servant of the Lord : be it unto me according to Thy word. I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Companion

The Minister, when he gives you the Cup, will say,
THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

You may say "Amen," as before, softly, after the words "everlasting life." At the end you may say in your heart :—

The Blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin.

You may then say secretly :—

Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift. 2 Cor. 9. 15.

Praise the Lord, O my soul ; and all that is within me praise His holy Name. Ps. 103. 1.

O my God, Thou art true ! O my soul, thou art happy !

Do not kneel long at the altar-rail, but go back to your place, taking care not to look about you, as soon as the next one after you has received the Cup.

AFTER COMMUNICATING

You will not forget the advice to spend all the time during which others are communicating on your knees in prayer or meditation, if your health and strength permit you.

You may now use any of the following words which you think will help you, or you may pray in your own words, and thank God for His goodness to you :—

For a worthy life

THANKS and praise be to Thee, O Lord ! Keep Thy servants, O heavenly Father, in all their ways, and may they so live that men may take knowledge of them that they have been with Jesus. Amen.

Thou art a place to hide me in, Thou shalt preserve me from trouble : Thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Ps. 32. 8, P.B.

For the safeguard of Christ's Presence

O GOD, whose blessed Son was with Thy three faithful servants in the burning fiery furnace, so that no harm came to them; may He be with us in all our fiery trials, that the flames of temptation may not hurt us; through the same Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To Jesus, for Perseverance

BLESSED JESU, who hast vouchsafed to receive Thy sinful servants to Thy most holy Feast, keep them evermore by Thy grace.

BLESSED JESU, who hast graciously fed Thy servants with heavenly manna, lead them in the narrow way that they lose not the promised land.

BLESSED JESU, who hast in mercy washed Thy servants' sins away in the sacred Blood of Thy all-holy Sacrifice, keep them clean and pure from wilful sin.

BLESSED JESU, who hast taken Thy unworthy servants into the blessed Communion of Saints, joining them in holy fellowship with Thyself, and with all Thy faithful people throughout the world, and with all Thy blessed Saints departed, make them to walk worthily of their high and holy calling.

BLESSED JESU, who hast given to Thy servants a share in Thy precious Cross and Passion; strengthen them to bear their Cross

For the Life of Christ

O GOD, Thou hast graciously fed my soul with the Bread of life, and made me verily and indeed to eat and drink of the Body and Blood of my crucified Saviour. I humbly thank Thee for these precious Gifts of Thy love; and beseech Thee that, through the merits and power of that holy Sacrifice which I have hereby commemorated, my soul may be filled with the Divine Life of my ascended Lord, and that, abiding in Him, I may bear much fruit to Thy glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is a very helpful practice, whenever you come to the Holy Communion, to fix beforehand upon some special object for which to pray with special earnestness. This may be some need of your own soul, or something you desire for another. Now will be the time for laying this matter before God.
earnestly beseeching Him to hear you for the sake of that precious Sacrifice which you have just commemorated. You must, of course, do this in your own words.

You should also make this a time for praying very earnestly for any whom you wish to remember before God. Pray now for your dearest relations, asking for each separately whatever blessing
you most desire for them. Pray for your Church, your Clergy, your Parish, all the sick persons you know of in your parish, or in whom you take an interest, for your Godchildren, for any who have offended or wronged you, for the Missions of the Church, especially those you know most about, for

Holy Communion

any good works or religious societies, in which you take part, for the conversion of any whose wicked lives are a sorrow to you. If there is going to be a Confirmation in your parish, pray for those about to be confirmed.

This will give you plenty to do whilst the rest are communicating. If, however, the numbers are great and the time long, you can take your Bible and read a portion, and think and pray about it. Such portions as the following would answer for this purpose :—

Psalms 23. Isaiah 53. St. Matt. 26. verses 17-30. St. Matt. 26. verses 31-46. St. Matt. 17. verses 26-37. St. Matt. 27. verses 38-54. St. John 6. verses 47-58. St. John 14. verses 18-31. St. John 15. verses 1-16. St. John 20. verses 19-31. Phil. 2. verses 5-11. Phil. 3. verses 7-14. 1 St. John 2. verses 1-17. 1 St. John 3. verses 1-11. Rev. 3. verses 14-22. Rev. 7. verses 9-17.

If you still have time, you may use now the Psalms and Hymns, given at the end of the Service, instead of at the end. See pages 88-93.

much in the same way as coldness and wandering of thought in the Service.

Do not forget to notice that the Doxology ("For Thine is the kingdom," &c.) is here used, giving to the prayer a character of praise and thanksgiving.

THE AFTER PRAYERS

Thy humble servants entirely desire Thy Fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanks-

beseeching Thee to grant that by the

In this prayer (1) we pray God to accept
"our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving."
This is a fitting description of the whole Service, which should be an offering to God of glad and joyous worship.
This is what is meant by the word "Eucharist." (2) We pray that all the benefits of Christ's passion (that is,
of His suffering) may be granted not only to us
but to the whole Church

passion. And here we offer and present unto Thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto Thee: humbly beseeching Thee, that all we, who are partakers of this Holy Communion, may be fulfilled with Thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto Thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech Thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto Thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

—to all God's faithful servants. (3) We offer to God another sacrifice, namely, that of "ourselves, our souls, and bodies." (4) We ask God to accept this sacrifice, not because we are worthy to offer it, nor because it is worthy to be offered, but only through Jesus Christ our Lord. The solemn offering of ourselves to God is a most important act, which you must never omit. As you make this offering, you can say in your heart some such words as these:—

O GOD, this is all I have to offer. It is most unworthy. Yet take it, and make it more fit to be offered, and let me never take back what I now give to Thee. Amen.

This prayer is (1) a thanksgiving, and (2) a prayer for perseverance. (1) We thank God for

And we most humbly beseech Thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with Thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship and do all such good works as Thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, feeding our souls with the spiritual food of Christ's most precious Body and Blood, as well as for the pledge and assurance God gives us in this Sacrament of His favour and goodness, and of our being one with His dear Son, and heirs of His everlasting kingdom. No doubt the Church in these words would remind us of the wonderful sayings of our Lord: "He that eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, dwelleth in Me, and I in him;" and "Whoso eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."—St. John 6. 56 and 54. (2) We ask God for the grace of perseverance, that we may continue in the holy fellowship of His saints, and serve Him in all good works. Here you may pray in your heart:—

Now we raise our hearts and voices to the highest pitch of praise, and once more join with Angels in their heavenly songs, breaking forth with the words in which the multitude of the heavenly host praised
God for the birth of the Saviour which was Christ the Lord. O dull, sluggish hearts, lift yourselves up yet once again ! Rise from earth triumph. See how after our first outburst of praise, we come down,

as it were, from heaven
to earth, as we remember our sins and our need of mercy. In this poor sinful world we cannot always sing Alleluia! So our song of joy takes for a moment a sadder tone, as we think how poor and unworthy, after all, our Service has been, and we cry, "O Lord God, Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us." Yet we cannot end with words of sadness: so once more we lift up our hearts, and crown our Service with an outburst of holy praise to Him who hath redeemed us with His Blood, and who is One with the Father and the Holy Ghost in the glory of the ever blessed and glorious Trinity.

And you will feel that God is with you, and that you go forth with the blessing of God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, upon you. Once more look up and say :—

THANKS be unto God for His unspeakable gift ! Amen

AFTER THE SERVICE

Do not be in a hurry to leave the Church directly the Service is over. Wait at least until the Clergy have gone back to the Vestry, and say one or more of the following Thanksgivings and Prayers :—

O MOST merciful Father, who knowest our weakness and infirmities, have mercy on Thine unworthy servants, and forgive all that has been amiss in this holy Service. Our hearts have been cold, our thoughts have been wandering, our devotions have been dull and lifeless. O God, we long to love Thee and serve Thee better. Pardon us through the mercies of Him who gave Himself for us, and accept us, unworthy though we be, for His sake. Grant, Lord, that we may learn to worship Thee better, and to know the blessedness of drawing nigh to Thy dear Son in His holy Sacrament. Help our dim Faith to realise better Thy love and Thy power. Keep us from falling back, and lead us ever onward, from strength to strength, and from grace to grace, through Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

Psalm 103

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul : and all that is within me praise His holy Name.

Praise the Lord, O my soul : and forget not all His benefits ;

Who forgiveth all thy sin : and healeth all thine infirmities ;

Who saveth thy life from destruction : and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness ;

Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things : making thee young and lusty as an eagle.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgement : for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

He shewed His ways unto Moses : His works unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion and mercy : longsuffering, and of great goodness.

He will not alway be chiding : neither keepeth He His anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins : nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses.

For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth : so great is His mercy also toward them that fear Him.

Look how wide also the east is from the west : so far hath He set our sins from us.

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children : even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear Him.

For He knoweth whereof we are made : He remembereth that we are but dust.

The days of man are but as grass : for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone : and the place thereof shall know it no more.

Holy Communion

But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear Him : and His righteousness upon children's children ;

Even upon such as keep His covenant : and think upon His commandments to do them.

The Lord hath prepared His seat in heaven : and His kingdom ruleth over all.

O praise the Lord, ye angels of His, ye that excel in strength : ye that fulfil His commandment, and hearken unto the voice of His words.

O praise the Lord, all ye His hosts : ye servants of His that do His pleasure.

O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of His, in all places of His dominion : praise Thou the Lord, O my soul.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

THE NUNC DIMITTIS

LORD, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace : according to Thy word.

For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation,
Which Thou hast prepared : before the face of all people ;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

FROM THE TE DEUM

THOU art the King of Glory : O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man : Thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

HYMN XI

THE King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine, for ever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy Cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight,
Thy unction grace bestoweth,
And oh! what transport of delight
From Thy pure Chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never ;
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house for ever. Amen.

SIR HENRY W. BAKER.

HYMN XII

O LOVE, who formedst me to wear
The image of Thy Godhead here ;
Who soughtest me with tender care
Through all my wanderings wild and drear —
O Love, I give myself to Thee,
Thine ever, only Thine to be.

O Love, who ere life's earliest dawn
On me Thy choice hast gently laid ;
O Love, who here as Man wast born,
And wholly like to us wast made ;—
O Love, I give myself to Thee,
Thine ever, only Thine to be.

O Love, who once in time wast slain,
Pierced through and through with bitter woe ;
O Love, who wrestling thus didst gain
That we eternal joy might know ;—
O Love, I give myself to Thee,
Thine ever, only Thine to be.

O Love, who lovest me for aye,
Who for my soul dost ever plead ;
O Love, who didst my ransom pay,
Whose power sufficeth in my stead ;—
O Love, I give myself to Thee,
Thine ever, only Thine to be.

Holy Communion

O Love, who once shalt bid me rise
From out this dying life of ours ;
O Love, who once o'er yonder skies
Shall set me in the fadeless bowers ;—
O Love, I give myself to Thee,
Thine ever, only Thine to be. Amen.

C. WINKWORTH (from the German).

As you go home, say to yourself :—

The Lord is on my right hand : therefore I shall not fall.

He shall keep thee in all thy ways, that thou dash not thy foot against a stone.

THANKS BE TO GOD. AMEN.

THANKSGIVING

As the best PREPARATION for Holy Communion is a HOLY LIFE, so the best THANKSGIVING after Holy Communion is a THANKFUL LIFE. Live as one would live who felt he had received a great blessing. Live as one who had been brought very near to God and to Heaven ; as one who had received great and precious gifts from God, and has given his whole heart and life to God in return. The memory of the holy and blessed Service you have taken part in ought to be a secret thought of happiness to you. It should come back to you often in the day, and fill you with a sense of peace and comfort. And this secret thought will help you to be gentle and loving and charitable in your conduct, so that men will be able to take knowledge of you that you have been with Jesus. It is a poor sort of thanksgiving just to go through some form of words, while there is no real thankfulness in the heart or in the life.

Yet when the heart is really thankful, it longs for words in which to speak its thanksgiving. And you will do well to use some special words of praise and thanksgiving at your Evening Prayers after Holy Communion.

For this purpose you can use any of the words given at the end of the Service, on pages 88-93.

Another thanksgiving is added, specially fitted for use on Sunday Evening after Holy Communion.

A Thanksgiving after Holy Communion

O GOD, who hast in Thy great mercy permitted me to draw near this day to the blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Thy dear Son ; I give Thee hearty thanks and praise for this Thy goodness. Lord, I thank Thee : help Thou my unthankfulness. Teach me more and more to feel and know the richness and freedom of Thy love. Teach me more and more to prize and to long for this holy feast of heavenly Food. Give me an ever-thankful heart, that so I may live ever a life of thankfulness, serving Thee, not as a slave, but as a loving child, in the spirit of adoption, and as sharing in the glorious liberty of Thy children. Oh, keep me from falling back ; lead me onward by Thy grace ; and bring me at last to the unveiled presence of my Saviour in heaven ; through the same Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THANKS BE TO GOD. AMEN.
